Re: United States v. James Curley,
08 Cr. 404 (SCR)

Dear Counsel:

In court this morning during the detention hearing before Magistrate Judge George A. Yanthis, I stated that I did not have possession of a videotape concerning the arrest of the defendant in January 2008 in Ramsey, New Jersey. At that time, the U.S. Attorney's Office did not have possession of the videotape. However, I learned after the hearing that the FBI does have possession of the videotape. The FBI has now provided me a copy of the videotape of that arrest and I am enclosing a copy of the videotape with this letter.

In addition, I am providing you with a recording left by the defendant on the voicemail of an individual residing in New Jersey.

Very truly yours,

2. Arrest Warrant (1 page);
3. Criminal History Sheets (8 pages);
4. Order of Protection (15 pages);
5. Handwritten Notepad page (1 page);
6. Rich's Automotive Specialists, LLC documents (3 pages);
7. Photograph of James Curley (1 page);
8. Utrak, Inc. Customer Service Agreement (2 pages) (redacted);
9. GPS Data and Website Logs (39 pages);
10. Search Warrant Affidavit and Order (14 pages); and
11. Miscellaneous Documents Recovered from Rental Car in January 2008 (20 pages).

above as the individual who told the owner, on October 9, 2006, that his name was "Jim Harris."

The Government recognizes its obligations under Brady v. Maryland, 373 U.S. 83 (1963), and its progeny. To date, the Government is unaware of any Brady material regarding your client, but will provide timely disclosure if any such material comes to light. The Government will provide Giglio material, if any, at the time it provides prior statements of witnesses pursuant to Title 18, United States Code, Section 3500.

Disclosure By the Defendant

In light of your request for the foregoing discovery, the Government hereby requests reciprocal discovery under Fed. R. Crim. P. 16(b). Specifically, we request that you allow inspection and copying of: (1) any books, or copies or portions thereof, which are in the defendant's possession, custody or control, and which the defendant intends to introduce as evidence or otherwise rely on at trial; and (2) any results or reports of physical or mental examinations and of scientific tests or experiments made in connection with this case, or copies thereof, which are in the defendant's possession or control, and which the defendant intends to introduce as evidence or otherwise rely on at trial or which were prepared by a witness whom the defendant intends to call at trial.

The Government also requests that the defendant disclose prior statements of witnesses he will call to testify. See Fed. R. Crim. P. 26.2; United States v. Nobles, 422 U.S. 225 (1975). We request that such material be provided on the same basis upon which we agree to supply the defendant with 3500 material relating to Government witnesses.

We wish to remind you that Fed. R. Crim. P. 12.2 requires you to provide the Government with written notice if the defendant intends to rely on the defense of insanity at the time of the alleged crime or intends to introduce expert testimony relating to a mental disease, defect, or other condition bearing upon the issue of whether she had the mental state required for the offenses charged.

We also wish to remind you that Fed. R. Crim. P. 12.3(a) requires you to provide the Government with written notice if the defendant intends to claim a defense of actual or believed exercise of public authority on behalf of a law enforcement or Federal intelligence agency at the time of the alleged crime.

The Government requests a response to our Rule 12.2 and 12.3 demands within the time period allowed by the Court for the filing of motions.

Sentence Reduction for Acceptance of Responsibility

Please be advised that, in the event your client has not entered a plea of guilty in a timely fashion, this Office reserves the right to oppose any reduction under the Sentencing Guidelines available for defendants who clearly demonstrate acceptance of responsibility, and plead prior to the Government's initiation of trial preparations, U.S.S.G. § 3E1.1(a) and (b). We may oppose such a reduction whether or not suppression or other pretrial motions remain outstanding at the time of the plea, and even if the trial date has not been announced by the Court significantly in advance of the trial.

Please contact me at your earliest convenience concerning the possible disposition of this matter or any further discovery that you may request.
